Dear

Thank you for your application for a Student (Temporary) (Class TU) visa with permission to work.

I am pleased to advise that you have been granted a subclass 571 Schools Sector student visa with permission to work.

This letter contains important information about this visa.

VISA GRANT NUMBER

The visa grant number is This is the unique number assigned to the visa. Visa holders should keep this visa grant number with them, as they may have to provide it to the Department during the life of the visa.

PASSPORT

Your visa is linked to the passport number that you provided in your application. If you obtain a new passport after receiving this letter, you will need to provide a certified copy of your passport to the Department. Please scan the certified copy and email it to the Helpdesk at eVisa.Students.Helpdesk@immi.gov.au to advise the Department of your new passport details. Otherwise, you should contact your nearest Immigration office in Australia or overseas.

Please note: If you do not provide us with the details of any new passport issued to you, you may experience significant delays at the airport and may be denied permission to board your plane.

VISA INFORMATION

Your visa is valid until 00/00/0000.

You do not need a visa label when to travel to or enter Australia. Whether you applied over the Internet or by paper application, you can check your visa details through the Department's Visa Entitlement Verification Online (VEVO) service. You can access VEVO by visiting www.immi.gov.au/students/index.htm and clicking on the VEVO link. If you have already registered to use VEVO you can use the password supplied to you or your Transaction Reference Number.

Visa conditions

Your visa and the visas of your family members have been granted subject to a number of conditions.

A full list of your visa conditions and the visa conditions of your family members is attached to this letter. You should retain this letter and refer to this list if there is any doubt as to the number and type of conditions attached to your visas.

It is very important that you and your family members abide by the visa conditions attached to each of your visas. If you or your family members fail to abide by any of the visa conditions attached to each of your visas, your visa and the visas of your family members may be cancelled and you and your family members may be required to leave Australia.

You are now subject to condition 8105, which means you may work a maximum of 20 hours in any one week when your course is in session (other than work that has been registered as part of your course). The 20 hours per week limit cannot be averaged out over a term or semester. For example, you cannot work 10 hours one week then work 30 hours the following week.

Please note that no work limits apply to you during recognised periods of vacation offered by your education provider. For information about when your course is deemed to be in session, please see the Department's website at www.immi.gov.au

CHECKING YOUR VISA DETAILS

You can now check your visa details through accessing Visa Entitlement Verification Online (VEVO) at www.immi.gov.au/students/index.htm and clicking on the VEVO link. VEVO allows certain third parties to check your visa information with your consent.

Through VEVO, you can give your consent to registered third parties such as:

- employers and labour suppliers, to help check whether your visa allows you to work in Australia;
- government agencies, such as the Australian Taxation Office, Medicare and Centrelink, to help assess eligibility for services;
- licensing authorities, to help establish your eligibility for a licence;
- educational institutions, to assess whether you can study in Australia; and
- financial institutions, to assess eligibility for finance.

The disclosure of your visa information by the Department is governed by the Privacy Act 1988. Therefore, the Department will disclose information about your visa to a third party only with your consent. You can consent to an inquiry about your visa entitlements by giving the third party your name, date of birth, passport number and passport country of issue. If you do not wish a third party to find out about your visa entitlements, do not give them this information.

The information form 993i 'Safeguarding your personal information', available from Immigration offices and can be downloaded from our website at www.immi.gov.au/allforms/pdf/993i.pdf. This form gives details of third parties to which you can consent to your personal information being disclosed, and how you can consent.
