EALD general support students - having a non-English speaking background and learning Standard Australian English to a level required at their respective year level of schooling. This applies to students who are permanent residents and most categories of temporary residents. It includes Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander (ATSI) students who speak an ATSI language, including Aboriginal English. EALD funding allocations are not provided for:

- students without a NESB code in EDSAS
- students whose EALD Level is too high
- students without a current Language and Literacy Level
- students in Anangu schools
- students in Intensive English Language/New Arrivals Program Centres (Census Year level of 'PL' or 'SL')
- international full fee paying students (Origin code 'EFF')
- exchange students (Origin code 'EXS')
- dependent children of short-stay visa holders (Origin code 'EVS')
- students with an external funding source (e.g. Department of Immigration and Border Protection)
- funding for asylum seekers: Origin code 'DTN', 'CDN' or BVE 050 visa holders).

Intensive English Language Program (Primary)/New Arrivals Program (Secondary)

Students accessing the Intensive English Language Program (Primary) or the New Arrivals Program (Secondary) include new arrivals to Australia or Aboriginal students who have minimal English. Newly arrived students need to have enrolled in an Australian school within 12 months of arrival (18 months for students in Reception Year one).
