The Department for Education has provided students with a mobile internet service to be used at home for educational purposes only.

The mobile internet service is offered for educational use only. Use of the service for any unlawful or inappropriate purpose including to access offensive or sexually explicit content, gambling activities, downloading or sharing copyright materials, participation in bullying, or any form of harassment is strictly prohibited.

It is the responsibility of parents or guardians to ensure that their child stays safe while using the mobile internet service. This includes ensuring that students are properly supervised while using this internet service.

Parents or guardians are encouraged to visit the eSafety Commissioner website to access eSafety resources for parents which provides strategies to keep children safe online, along with eSafety resources for young people to explore. This website includes general cyber safety information as well as advice about specific issues such as cyberbullying, dealing with offensive content and mobile phone safety.

There's also a parent and carers guide to online safety translated into languages including Chinese, Greek, Italian and Spanish.

All services will be monitored to ensure appropriate data use, in terms of data volume. If data use exceeds volumes considered reasonable for educational use, the department may cancel or suspend the service without notice.

As the child's parent or guardian, I understand, acknowledge and agree that:

- It is my responsibility to read this agreement carefully and discuss it with my child, so we both have a clear understanding of our responsibilities under this agreement.
- Whilst the level of data usage may be monitored, the content and websites being accessed is not, therefore it is my responsibility to ensure the proper supervision of my child/ren while they are using the internet through the service.
- The Department for Education does not accept any liability arising from my child/ren using the mobile internet service provided for any purpose other than educational use.
- It is my responsibility to notify the school immediately if the mobile internet data connectivity equipment is damaged, lost or stolen.
