Concerns checklist

(Actions to be considered when your concern is NOT about an immediate threat to a child or young person's safety)

Observations of neglect—for example, poor nutrition or hygiene, inadequate supervision, inappropriate responsibilities in the	Children of culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) backgrounds home, frequent failure to collect from site etc	Has the site contacted the CALD community liaison officers (Department for Education only)
Have the issues, as they relate to the child's learning, social development or safety, been raised with the parents or carers?	Young people with 'at risk' behaviour—for example, offending,
Have the parents or carers been advised of local health/parenting/financial/other services that might assist them?	substance abuse, signs of mental health problems, sexual vulnerability, home instability
Have you used all available and appropriate support in your work place to assist you in responding to your observations?	Have you and/or a senior staff member communicated your concerns with parents or carers where safe to do so?
With frequent failure to collect a child from the site, have you confirmed emergency contacts for overnight care on the enrolment form or discussed alternative arrangements?	Have you and/or a senior staff member established a belief that the parents or carers are not protective?
Persistent non-attendance of compulsory-age children	Have you and/or a senior staff member linked the young person to appropriate youth services including mental health/health/juvenile justice services?
Has a referral been made to the Department for Education attendance and engagement officer or delegate and has a file of actions taken by the school, student support services team and other agencies been compiled?	Have you and/or a senior staff member used integrated support services team or referred to an interagency service?
Children and young people in care (Guardianship)	Discussion with other professionals working with the child or young person or their family members (siblings etc)
Has the child or young person's case worker been contacted to discuss concerns?	Have you discussed your concerns with your principal/director/senior staff member/student support team etc?
Has the staff member who established the student's Individual	Have you discussed your concerns with out of Education Plan (principal, preschool director or delegate) been consulted?	school hours care (OSHC), family day care, child care, preschool staff?
	staff?  Have you discussed your concerns with staff at education or care consulted?  Children with Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander identity  Has the site and/or education office Aboriginal Community Education Manager/Aboriginal Service Engagement Officer or other services supporting the child/young person or their family	staff?
consulted?  Children with Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander identity  Has the site and/or education office Aboriginal Community Education Manager/Aboriginal Service Engagement Officer or	staff?  Have you discussed your concerns with staff at education or care sites where the child was previously enrolled?  Have you discussed your concerns with other agencies—
consulted?  Children with Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander identity  Has the site and/or education office Aboriginal Community Education Manager/Aboriginal Service Engagement Officer or other services supporting the child/young person or their family	staff?  Have you discussed your concerns with staff at education or care sites where the child was previously enrolled?  Have you discussed your concerns with other agencies—government, non-government, local government?