Key locations and course overview

The course has had to change due to construction of the Adelaide Oval bridge. There have been changes to all courses due to path changes in recent years. They have been made in anticipation that the course will not have to be altered for a number of years.

The start line is towards the downstream bridge from the finish line due to the course changed to fit in the correct distance.

The second lap of the 5.4km course is the same as the first lap of the 2.8km course.

The changeover area is on the southern side of the finish bridge, below the kiosk.

All changeovers occur in the same direction apart from the last runner.

The finish line is on the southern side of the bridge. All runners may meet their last runner on the northern side of the bridge and cross the line as a team.
